THE CARMEL CRAZE

SENIOR—"There is no cure for "The Carmel Craze!" "It's a disease. The Carmel Craze is spreading rapidly."

SOPH.—"What are the symptoms?"

SR.—(Excited) "I'll explain: The tension is mounting in the stands. Fans of all ages begin to chew fingernails hungrily. Only a few seconds are left on the clock. The most important game of the season is about to come to a close. What will happen? Will Deli plow through to get the touchdown and win the game, or will we be sorely defeated? The outcome of the game is not what is important, but, rather, the pride and enthusiasm the entire community is feeling for our team—win or lose."

SOPH.—"I think I've got it—a special kind of love for CHS."

SR.—"Terrific! Pass it on, through Carmel, The City of Champions, where everyone is obsessed with THE CARMEL CRAZE!"

SENIORS TRIUMPH

The third year of our high school career rolled around and, with the beginning of our senior year, we still had that terrible reputation of being a lazy, no-good class that only liked to party and hated any form of work.

In our sophomore year, "Throw 'Em to the Hounds," our pride and joy, our creaky, wobbly contribution to Homecoming, received a third place. Not too bad, huh? (There were only three floats in the competition!)

Last year, as Juniors, we came up with "Tighten the Titans"—quite an acceptable float in our eyes. The judges, however, didn't see things our way. The Sophomores were the winners, and with that win came disgrace to us a second year in a row. Sophomores aren't supposed to win, especialy when they're competing with juniors and seniors! Someone failed to tell them that. But we had moved up one notch, finishing a close second.

Homecoming of 1978, our last chance for success, was now upon the Senior Class. Would we continue our losing streak, or could we possibly break the spell and graduate knowing that we weren't a complete failure as a class in high school? As float ideas came pouring in and the theme "Flush the Pirates" was decided upon, our hopes brightened. This time, we were determined to win. It didn't matter how many times we stapled our fingers together, or that we had fluffed thousands of white paper napkins. For two weeks we spent our evenings at the Ice Skadium, instead of at our desks. Grades began to suffer drastically. We were too tired to study. We would not accept anything less than first place.

When the floats were brought out of hiding and onto Main Street for the Homecoming parade, we knew we had done our best. The judges gave us first place honors for our toilet!

HOUNDS CHEW PIRATES

It was not the usual first day of the school week. No one seemed to have the Monday morning "blahs." Students were marveling at the enthusiastic signs and decorations in the halls. They spoke of the Homecoming activities with enthusiasm and a new vitality. As Thursday night became a reality, the community of Carmel united in the gym. Then each class performed a cheery skit symbolizing the coming defeat of the Madison Heights Pirates. The Juniors presented a skit, "Football Feud," that was a parody of a TV game show. It won in the class skit competition. As the pep session came to a climax, Senior Shari Kilpatrick was crowned queen to reign over the Homecoming festivities.

On Friday, under the shining midday sun, came the queen and her court, the spectacular class and club floats, the marching band-fifth in state-wide competition, and the Number-One-ranked Greyhounds. Since September 22 had been declared "Hug-A-Hound Day," both the team and the girls took advantage of the situation. That afternoon, school spirit became so overwhelming that school officials let T.G.I.F.'ers loose for the day.

As the excited crowds of people packed the stands, school spirit reached its peak. The undefeated Greyhounds burst from the locker room and entered the football field with awesome power. By half time, the Pirates had sunk into a sea of hopelessness. The final score was 50-0.

On Saturday night, celebrating the Homecoming victory, students attended the dance sponsored by the C-Club. Live entertainment was provided by the band, "Bald Ego."

As the weekend came to a close, Seniors treasured their last memories of Homecoming, while the underclassmen dreamed of next year.

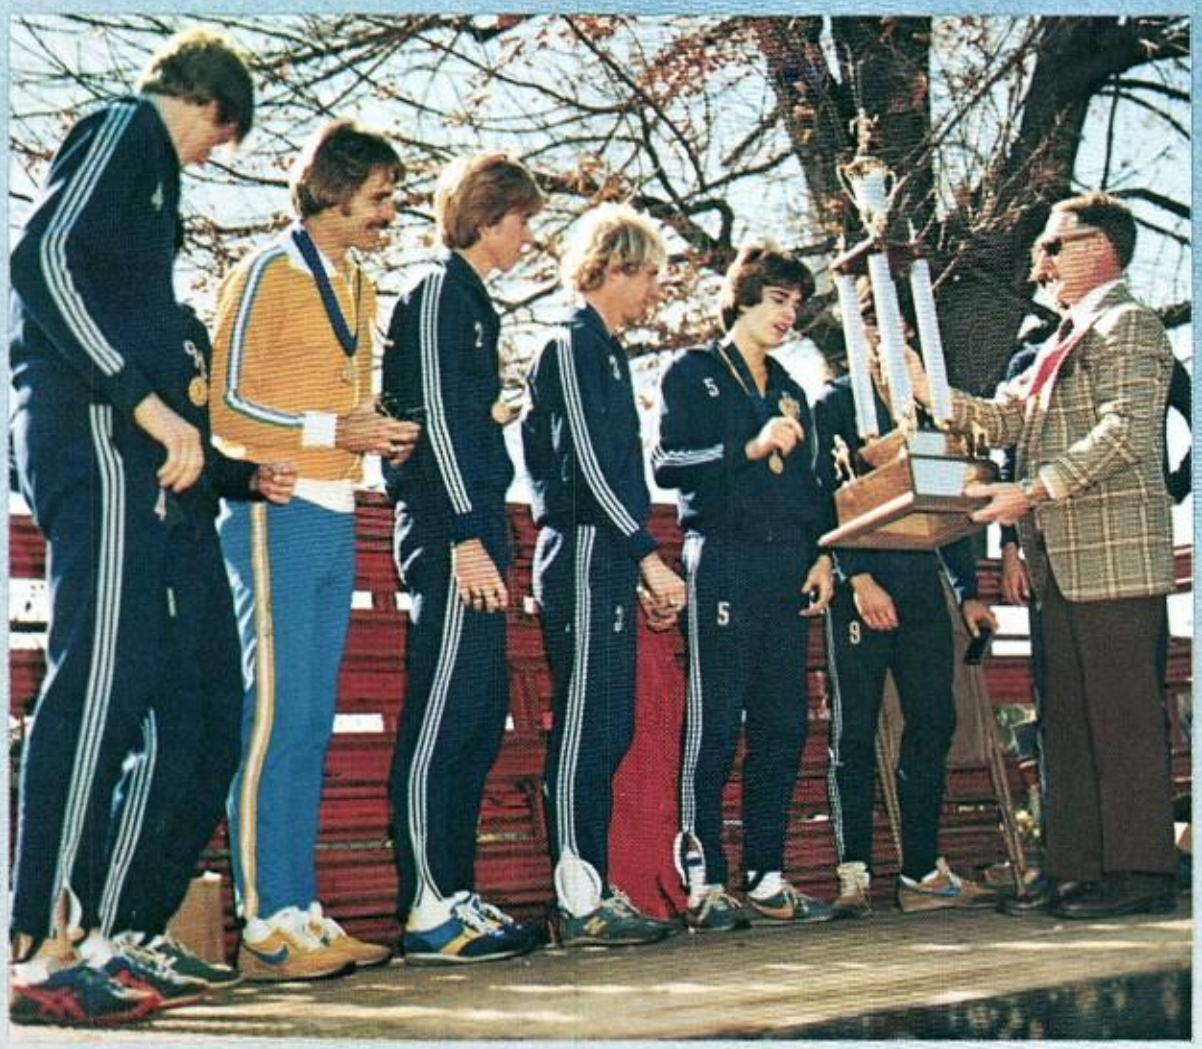
CROSS



Coach Chuck Koeppen and his loyal Harriers accomplished something never done before in the history of Carmel athletics. On a beautiful sunny October day, they returned home from Brookshire Golf Course with their THIRD STATE CHAMPIONSHIP. Not only was it their third State Title, but it was also three in a row. Led by Rod Zochowski, the fifth-place finisher in the State Meet, the

COUNTRY

Harriers surpassed the pinnacle of a runner's dream. The Cross Country Team received national recognition for their tremendous feat.

Carmel fans attended en masse, outnumbering all other schools combined. The entire football squad attended to spur their fellow Carmelites on to victory.

Three in a row—way to go!

GREYHOUNDS BRING

LOCKER ROOM PRAYER

Let us pray. Pray in your own way. Pray not to win for, God willing, we shall. Pray to give 100 percent of your body, and pray that no one is injured on either football team.

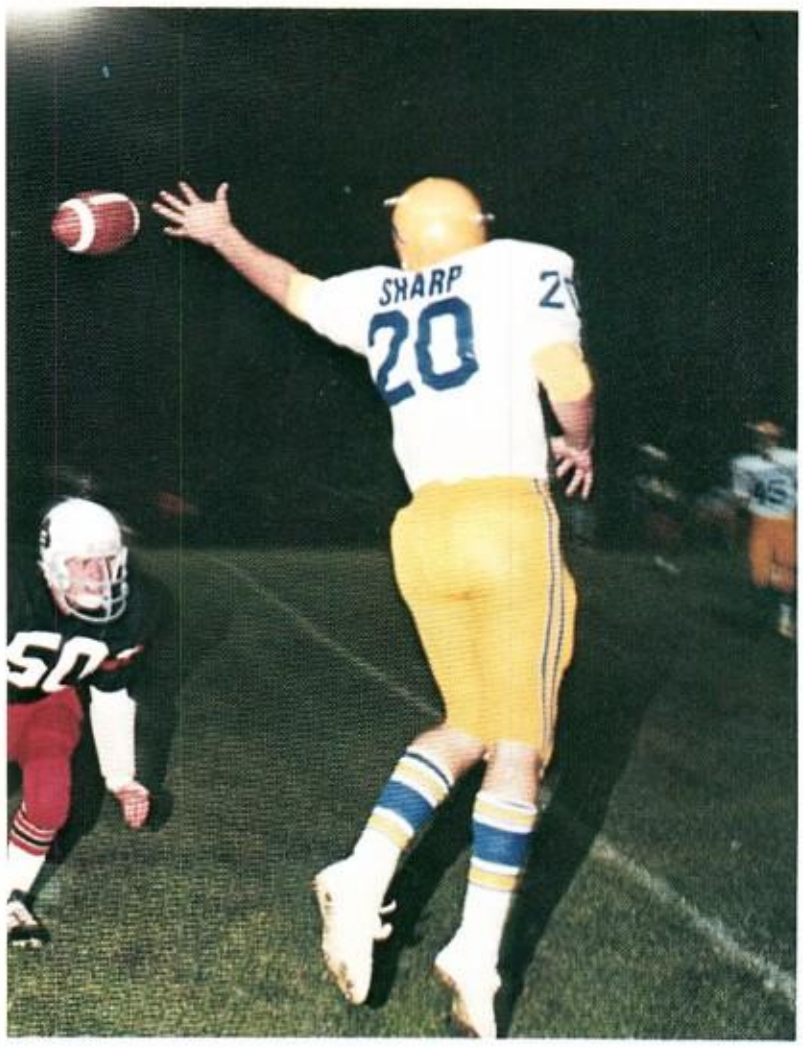
Thank God that you can play for Carmel High School, and we thank God that He has allowed us to coach you. Good luck. God bless you. We love you guys.

HOME THE GOLD

When Coach Dullaghan first came to Carmel, his dream was to build a football program known in Indiana for excellence. In 1975, his team was defeated in the State Final by Valpo in a battle to the finish. Dullaghan never wore that silver reminder. He wanted the gold. Seventy-six and seventy-seven also brought winning seasons, but not the one Dullaghan wanted.

As the 1978 season began to fall into perspective, many were a bit leery about what the new season was going to bring. Mark Herrmann was gone. Following close behind were the great big, malicious players such as Wally Jordan. After creaming North Central, the team removed all doubt. They were terrific! The players were pleased with their Number One ranking but were not about to let it go to their heads. They knew that the season had to be played one game at a time. That same attitude carried them to the final game against Ft. Wayne Dwenger. There the gold shone brightly. At last, the pinnacle had been reached.

Senior players were: D. Aurelius, J. Bejin, T. Bejin, D. Broecker, D. Delagrange, J. Eaton, D. Fellmeth, J. Graves, J. Hare, M. Hartman, T. Hodges, R. Huber, T. King, B. Martin, K. Mullen, M. Myers, G. Reynolds, P. Sharp, R. Williams, M. Woodward.



A TOUCH OF CLASS

AMBASSADORS

The expression, "A Touch of Class," symbolizes the quality of the Carmel High School Ambassadors under the direction of Mr. Ron Hellems. This mixed choir adopted their motto in 1977, when they first won the Bishop Luers Midwest Swing Choir Contest. Few words can describe the emotion these champions arouse through their music. The dream of every choir member is to be one of the talented group of thirty-three.

The hours spent practicing for their performances at Beef-'N' Boards dinner theatre proved to be worthwhile. Both performances, on December 16 and 18, were big successes. The money for the show was earned to help finance a trip to Florida during spring vacation.

Hoarse voices from singing and sore feet from dancing never seem to discourage the Ambassadors from perfecting their act. They won't settle for being less than the best, and the best is what they are.

DAY LIFE

Most of the student body and teachers would have to agree that there couldn't be a better place in which to receive an education than Carmel High School, one of the top-ranking schools in Indiana. The facilities and staff are tremendous. Since standards are high and competition is keen, students must work hard. Some days can even get terribly routine. When the time comes for a convo, however, students come alive. They have seen everything from parachutes to magicians and rock groups. Some of the craziest skits are performed at pep sessions. Coaches and jocks look like fools when they get a pie in the face or can't balance a book on their heads. Memories of such things make Carmel special to the graduates.

1. Tracy Ryan walks across the football field after enjoying a convocation of Army Parachuters. 2. Students do an assignment—part of the day's routine—for Mr. Knowles. 3. To add excitement to the day, the Football Team is honored with a pep session. 4. In a close contest, the CHS Brain Game Team competes against Shortridge.

NITE LIFE

After a long school-week filled with Johnny Carson and sleepless nights at the books, Friday night finally rolls around. Everyone is ready to have a super time—but what to do? There are no basketball or football games, no big dates, a minimal amount of money, and Huckleberry's at Ball State. The decision is made to cruise Carmel Town. After driving past Mary's and out to Screaming Bridge and back, students decide to get a Quarter Pounder (with cheese) and a hot fudge sundae at McDonald's—or, maybe, a pizza at Noble Romans. Around 10:00 p.m. the parking lot begins to fill up with all kinds of wheels from Mom's station wagon to Z28's. The management begins to panic and locks restroom doors. Students enter to get a coke and something to eat; then it's back to the parking lot to socialize. So goes the life of a high school student. Parents consider Friday nights as time wasted. Students think of them as memories in the making.

5. The Number One Hangout for high school students, McDonald's, is filled to the brim on weekends. 6. Kelly Autry and Jim Ries step out for a night on the town. 7. A great place to get pizza, Noble Romans, does quite a business for the hungry high school crowd. 8. Pam Pratt, Carleen Gibson, and Brian Nelson enjoy themselves at a Christmas party given by Jackie Solmos and Kasey Cusick.

MARCHING TO THE BAND

It's seven o'clock on a chilly, foggy September morning. The sound of Mr. Blue's whistle is heard and once again faithful band members fall into order on the parking lot. As the cold air hits my face, thoughts travel back to similar days. Days when the air was stifling and the temperature hit a sizzling 93°.

A summer of Kool-aid, Band-aids, shouted commands, aching muscles, fun drills, and band camp fill my mind. The work and the sweat—what was it for? August 23—Band Day! Sometimes it was hard to remember why I was putting myself through agony. I was always jolted back to reality by the choice remarks of Mr. Blue, Mr. King, and Mr. Loveall: "Band, that was elstinky!" "Keep Pluggin'" "My grandmother could march better than that!" "You looked better last Wednesday!" "Well, that was good . . . but it wasn't great!" "You are a great band, we know it, you know it, now let's show the judges."

Yes, and we did show the judges! We stunned the crowds in the morning and dazzled the judges with our night performance. Glowing proudly in our new uniforms, we had done our best. We sent shivers down the spine. With our heads held high, we carried the fifth place trophy home to Carmel.

DARK OF THE

Deep in the Smoky Mountains of North Carolina, a witch-boy fell in love with a pretty mountain girl. "The Ballad of Barbara Allen," the story of Dark of the Moon, was performed on November 16th and 17th.

THE BALLAD OF BARBARA ALLEN

A witch-boy from the mountain came,
A-pinin' to be human,
Fer he had seen the fairest gal. . .
A gal named Barbara Allen.

O Conjur Man, O Conjur Man,
Please do this thing I'm wantin'
Please change me to a human man,
Fer Barbara I'd be courtin'.

Now, Barbara had a red, red dress
And one she had of blue,
And many men did Barbara love,
But never was she true.

Oh, you can be a man, a man,
If Barbara will not grieve you,
If she be faithful fer a year,
Yer eagle, he will leave you.

O Barbara, will you marry me,
And will you leave me never,
Oh, yes, my love, I'll marry you,
And live with you ferever.

1. The audience cheers for another curtain call. 2. John, the Witch-Boy, pleads with Conjour Man to make him a human being. 3. The Witch-Boy mourns the death of his beloved Barbara Allen. 4. Barbara Allen repents her sins.

Starting out the New Year right were the cast and crew of The Night of One Acts. On January 12, after tons of rehearsals, three one-act plays were presented. The symbolic play, Mannequin's Demise, was directed by Senior Bob Sole and his assistant, Ann Thompson. Sherlock Holmes surely would have rolled over in his grave if he could have seen The Potman Spoke Sooth. This parody was directed by Hope Baugh, assisted by Leslie Woods. The Audition is Over, was directed by Ron Rohlfing. J.A.D. Porter was Assistant Director.

KING TUT

VISITS CARMEL

At Carmel, spirit and excitement arise in all sorts of events from Math Club competition to Student Body elections. CHS has always upheld the motto of the Ambassadors: "A Touch of Class."

Pep Sessions and Spirit Breakfasts are long-time student favorites. The Administration cooperates beautifully at these get-togethers, allowing students to use their imaginations to perform crazy skits or even rock concerts—such as one given by the Senior Musicians.

Spirit out-shines that of other schools partly because of the special relationship between teachers and students. Working together as ONE has given the Greyhound family the reputation that is upheld in everything.

1. In a Pep Session before Homecoming, Jeff Echelberger portrays King Tut. 2. Mr. Bardos, Mr. Roth, and Mr. Dullaghan get splattered with a pie in class competition. 3. Jim Mullin, Sallyann Hogan, and John Ohmer "Rock around the Clock" on 50's day.

ALLEGRO 1979, directed by Mr. Loveall, was presented in the High School Auditorium on May 4 and 5. When the curtains were drawn, King Tut and twenty-five Egyptians clad in shimmering gold, black, and white costumes performed the opening number. Stagecraft classes, under the direction of Mr. Fox, created this elaborate King Tut set. The Coquettes also performed a black light number, a dance routine with gorillas, and scenes from the Old West. Vocal performances included songs by The Accents, Mr. Knowles, and the Ms. Fits: Mrs. Conrad, Mrs. Dykema-Jones, Miss Pearson, and Ms. Hensley. Band numbers featured the Trumpet Section, the Trombone Section, the Wind Band, and the Jazz Ensemble. On a colorful stage, the Disco Boys boogied with the Coquettes in the finale. Beth Sitzman was Mistress of Ceremonies for this outstanding production.

The Roaring Twenties were re-lived by Carmel High School actors in the musical-comedy, No, No, Nanette. Uncle Jimmy, a wealthy Bible publisher, became happy by spending his money on three girls: Betty from Boston, Winnie from Washington, and Flora from Frisco. Through a misunderstanding, the girls met Jimmy's wife and his innocent niece, Nanette, at Chicadee Cottage in Atlantic City. By the end of the play, Nanette was engaged, and everyone lived happily ever after.

On Saturday evening, April 21, at the Indianapolis Convention Center in the 500 Ballroom, the Junior Class gave their farewell to the graduating Class of 1979. "We've Got Tonight" was the theme chosen for this year's Prom. Handsome tuxes, beautiful formals, and music by Malachai sparked party-goers to the dance floor where they discoed the evening away. Jim Ries and Kelly Autry were crowned King and Queen. Their court included Jeff Tatum and Karen Thomas, Mike Kindler and Lisa Matheson, Steve Canally and Karen Rice, David Broecker and Mary Titsworth.

MATH DEPARTMENT

1. Mrs. Thomas makes a geometric concept more understandable by using a three-dimensional cone. 2. The Analytic Geometry class, taught by Mr. Stoeckinger (Department Head), waits in anticipation for the start of the ciphering contest. 3. Dan Boots concentrates on a difficult program in Computer Math. 4. Tension is high as Denise Barc tries to catch up with Mary Homrighausen in a final match of the ciphering contest. 5. While using the overhead projector, Mrs. Mueller seems to teach shadow pictures as well as algebra problems. 6. MATH CLUB—Row 1: Bill Reams, Julie Seidensticker, Mrs. Nesbitt (Sponsor), Jim Davis, President; Julie Burt, Vice-President; Tom Broecker, Treasurer; Paul Geyer, Secretary; Mrs. Mueller (Sponsor), Lionel Luu, Bruce Paramore. Row 2: Jeff Echelburger, Julie Shafer, Claudia Wang, Mark Oliver, Daria Garman, Missy Coyne, Tami Holt, Jennie Putney, Libby Taylor, Donna Lowe, Diane Pfoser, Debbie Cole, Lisa Smith, Kathy Shafer, Theresa Tsao. Row 3: Curtis Wible, Mark Evans, Pat Logan, Craig Bueller, Keith Ray, Brian Rhea, Charles Dine, Jim Ford.

The final bell has already rung and the last book has been quickly closed, as I walk through the empty Math Hall. After another day of brain-challenging work, the math wizards of the school have left for home. There is a quiet calmness in each room, but somewhere—on down the hall—I hear the laughter and chatter of busy people. I step up my pace to find out what club is meeting. I hear Mrs. Mueller's voice and I realize that I am approaching the meeting of the Mu Alpha Theta, the National Math Club. Diligent math students are having fun after school by playing Mod 7 Baseball and a variety of other games. I leave this oasis of busy activity and continue on my tour of the school.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Leaving the Math Department behind and turning the corner, I enter the Social Studies Department. I walk through the world of government, U.S. History, World History, economics, and psychology. Here, the classes are taught through the use of lectures, simulations, tests, and audio-visual materials. Each method is a valuable form of teaching and students learn readily. By studying history, Carmel students prepare for the future.

1. Students listen intently and take notes during Mr. Gossard's lecture. 2. Mr. Gundersen enumerates important points for his government students. 3. Mr. Garretson, Department Head, interviews United States Senator Richard Lugar on the role of a U.S. Congressman. The session was video-taped for instructional use in the classroom. 4. Dr. Taylor, Scott Jefferys, and Bob Greenman lead a discussion in economics. 5. Making sure his students remember a portion of U.S. History, Mr. Brown uses his desk as a stage. 6. Steve Ryan takes time out from the lecture in economics. 7. Mr. Buerger takes time to help two students straighten out their notes.

ENGLISH

Walking past the library and through the English hall, I glance into the English classes. Even though the situation in each room seems to be the same—a teacher and a class—each student will come forth with different knowledge.

Humanities, English Writers, American Writers, Comp./Lit., Research Paper, Grammar, and Sophomore Core—all of these classes and still others give Carmel students a broad and important background in English.

Special speakers throughout the year gave the work added interest. Mrs. Anne Armstrong Thompson, author of The Swiss Legacy, The Message from Absalom, and The Romanov Ransom, spoke to all composition classes. Dr. Paul Schumacher, Professor of Humanities and English at Ball State University, spoke on "Shakespeare" to all students in Sophomore Core and in English Writers.

1. Cindy Haagsma, Carolyn Fry, Micah Hudson, Kim Cobbs, and Kristi Niblack have fun with a skit in Mr. Wright's Humanities class. 2. Dept. Head, Mrs. Carnahan, and Mrs. Simons talk with Novelist Mrs. Anne Armstrong Thompson. 3. Mr. Knowles gestures to get his point across. 4. Junior Nick Kunesh reads to his class. 5. Working on a choric reading are Mr. Johnson's speech students: Row 1: L. Houghton, T. Wesley, S. Clayton. Row 2: R. Sexton, S. Strickland, B. Wolfersburger. Row 3: D. Luu, D. Norman.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

As I round the corner of the attendance desk and enter the Foreign Language Hall, I hear a murmur of unfamiliar words. If I should open each door, I would discover French and Spanish classes occupying the first rooms. Department Head, Ms. Hensley, is working on papers in her office, and I can hear German and Latin students reciting down the hall. Once a year, this department sponsors a special Foreign Language Day.

1. Student Congress Treasurer, Luann VanCampen, presents a Homecoming plaque to German Club President, Bob Greenman, for winning club float competition. 2. Tom Jensen, Greg Waples, Sara Lentz, Martin Tamler, and Debbie Dock demonstrate their winning techniques in the Latin class version of RISK. 3. SPANISH CLUB: Row 1: Susan Robinson, President Isabel Rivera, Treasurer Kim Bangs, Judy Nickell, Karen Young. Row 2: Sue Giczewski, Bonnie Bangs, Stacy Strothman, Kathy Hubbard. Row 3: Tom Lennon, Denise Barc, Susan Colbert, Julie McNutt. NOT PICTURED: Vice-President Joan Young. Sponsors: Mrs. Mohr and Mrs. Dykema-Jones. 4. Kelly Newkirk and Marty Montoya give a Spanish demonstration to classmates Patricia Robertson, Amy Walrod, and John Frey. 5. Australian Exchange Student, Kathy Main, and German Exchange Student, Achim Birsner, pose with the German Students who visited Carmel for three weeks in the spring. 6. Mrs. Mohr waits for a response from her French students: Janech Bryant, Andrea Buchwald, and Kristi Genung. 7. Julie Seidensticker, Craig Amet, Chris Maines, Bob Greenman, Lisa Benawit, Brenda Wolfersberger, Susan Toombs, and Jim Ford, members of the German Folk Dancers, perform for the Mini-Panic.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Mr. Lamb's Industrial Arts Department sprawls before me as a maze of machinery. I hear the whirr of equipment echoing off the high ceiling. Diligently, the students develop the skills that are taught them in classes such as Building Trades, Communications, Auto Mechanics, Wood Shop, and Drafting. This year, the Vocational Building Trades class added their contribution to Carmel by constructing a house. This work, at 13082 Andover Drive, was started last spring and was finished this fall.

1. Robby Tressler carefully turns a piece of wood on a lathe during Woods 3 class. 2. Ray Sexton, an Auto Systems student, removes a tire in order to adjust the car's brakes. 3. Bart Southward, Production Graphic Arts student, runs a school printing press. 4. Scott Clark strives for perfection on a drafting project in Mr. Yull's class. 5. Adam Benard, Ken Bush, and Al Jantz work to center a piston on their small engine. 6. This house at 13082 Andover Drive was completed by the Vocational Building Trades class.

BUSINESS DEPT.

As I walk down the hall, the Art Department merges into the Business Department. Typing, dictations, teaching, and learning occupy the time in each room. DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) allows students to put into practice what they have learned. This year, Mrs. Clark took forty-four students to French Lick for State Competition. Coming home, the students could reflect on a successful year in the school's two store efforts, Gifts Unlimited and Santa's Secret Shop. Mrs. Davison heads the Business Department that teaches students much valuable information.

1. Mr. Gandolph checks student progress in his Business Law class. 2. Cindy Anderson and Mark Zeiger take a brief moment of rest from the work of the DECA store. 3. Mrs. Goens points out an important aspect of accounting to Dawn Cronin. 4. Gretchen Gray carefully copies a shorthand problem from the book. 5. In the Business Office, Donna Darling concentrates on a typing assignment. 6. Mrs. Brindle's Typing 2 students, Jennifer Dockery, Heather Haag, Jay Linville, Tim Wood, and Kevin Vogt quickly prepare for a timewriting.

As I enter the double doors to the Home Economics Department, my senses are quickened. My eyes see future gourmets busy preparing their dishes; my ears hear the sounds of a bustling kitchen; and my nose is quieted with the aroma of finely-mixed herbs and spices. I smell freshly baked breads and cookies . . . FOOD!

It is hard to pull myself away from these mouth-watering smells, but I continue my tour through the department. As I walk into the adjoining room, the sound of machinery overtakes the kitchen noises. This classroom has seamstresses busy performing the stitching magic that will transform a piece of cloth into a beautiful suit.

I leave this busy nucleus and cross the hall into the Child Development rooms. Active little youngsters are happily playing as interested girls observe through the two-way mirror. These students are learning invaluable skills.

1. Experimenting for the right seasoning, Laura Kleiner, Lynn Wischmeyer, and Sue Wilkerson let their dish simmer. 2. Leading FHA this year are: Row 1: Anne Hoyt, Vice-President; Sue Giczewski, President; Cathy Gordon, Vice-President. Row 2: Kathy Edwards, Historian; Leslie Green, Treasurer; Terri Widmer, Secretary. 3. Jane Dishon, models the suit she made as Andrea Miller and Quynh Hoang observe. 4. Patty Smith and Paula Harrison help supervise some "goblins." 5. Mrs. Summeier assists Curt Scott with a Singles Survival assignment. 6. Kim Bangs concentrates on a difficult stitch.

ART DEPARTMENT

After climbing a flight of stairs, I turn the corner to visit the Art Department. The many courses offered by this department seem to keep the students busy. The showcase displays ceramic articles made from the potter's wheel. Paintings, photographs, and commercial art adorn the bulletin boards. Moving through these works of art, I arrive at the Textiles and Jewelry rooms filled with fascinating equipment. The looms hold bright rugs as several students work to add a few more inches before the bell rings. Next door, students are creating unique pieces of jewelry. Simple and intricate materials make beautiful results in the hands of these artists.

1. Nancy Fiewell learns to weave on a school loom. 2. Linda Young smiles as she finishes her ceramic clown. 3. Spectators gathered when fire trucks rushed to the scene of a small fire in the Art Department on Dec. 20. 4. Mr. Sparks, in Jewelry II, teaches Bobby Burgher and Lisa Kleiner to be skilled craftsmen. 5. Mrs. Porter arranges a ceramic display. 6. Lee Willis molds a piece of clay on the potter's wheel.

SCIENCE

The Science Department, headed by Mr. Mayfield, snakes around the southern end of the second floor. Noises of busy labs drift into the hall. Some chemistry labs emit the smell of sulfur as compounds are being mixed under the heat of a Bunsen burner. Biology labs smell of sharks soaked in formaldehyde. Passing by the door, I can hear the squeals as the specimen is cut open. The "highlight" of the Science Department, however, is on the roof of the new building. When Mr. Quillin opens the observatory, students can raise their eyes to the sky.

1. Miss Radaker points out the shark's important organs to Jenny Brown and Karen Kent. 2. Mr. Quillin helps Tony Comstock and Cathy Quillin observe the galaxies. 3. The Science Club: Julia Burt, Leah Reimer, Sponsor Mr. Hitson, Libby Taylor. 4. Steve Peale watches from a safe distance as Jim Davis and Tony Sales heat a potent mixture in Mr. Rott's chemistry class. 5. Mike Christy plays with his little friend in biology class.

ACTIVITIES

"Be grateful for each new day a new day that you have never lived before. Twenty-four new, fresh, unexplored hours to use usefully and profitably. We can squander, neglect, or use it. Life will be richer or poorer by the way we use today."

GO FIGHT
MIT

GOLD AND BLUE!

A Cheerleader's many duties range from performing skits and baking cookies to decorating locker rooms before a big game. Each spring the Cheerleaders are chosen by the Student Body to represent them at athletic events the following year. Each Cheerleader takes on an important responsibility with her election. Early morning practices, hours in the hot sun preparing for the State Fair Contest, and sore throats and legs are just a few prices they pay for perfection. Carmel is proud of the girls' cheering ability and spirit-raising capacity. They are, indeed, appreciated and are quite an asset to Carmel's outstanding athletic program.

Cheerleader friendship is worth more than gold.
It cannot be bought, it cannot be sold.
You can't have it by trying,
or from a book on a shelf.
You just have to be a
Cheerleader yourself.

1. Hey, Show Em! 2. Reserve Cheerleaders: Diane Schroepher, Natalie Taylor, Beth Hunter, Kerano Sanders, Lisa Brown. 3. The Varsity Cheerleaders get some assistance from spirited Carmel jocks. 4. THE SHOW GOES ON

The Thespians, once again, had a very busy year. Most of their days were devoted to preparing for their productions that they presented to the school and to the public. They spent their extra time selling candy bars and sponsoring a car wash to help with the expense of their performances. Many hours were spent rehearsing after school to achieve perfection.

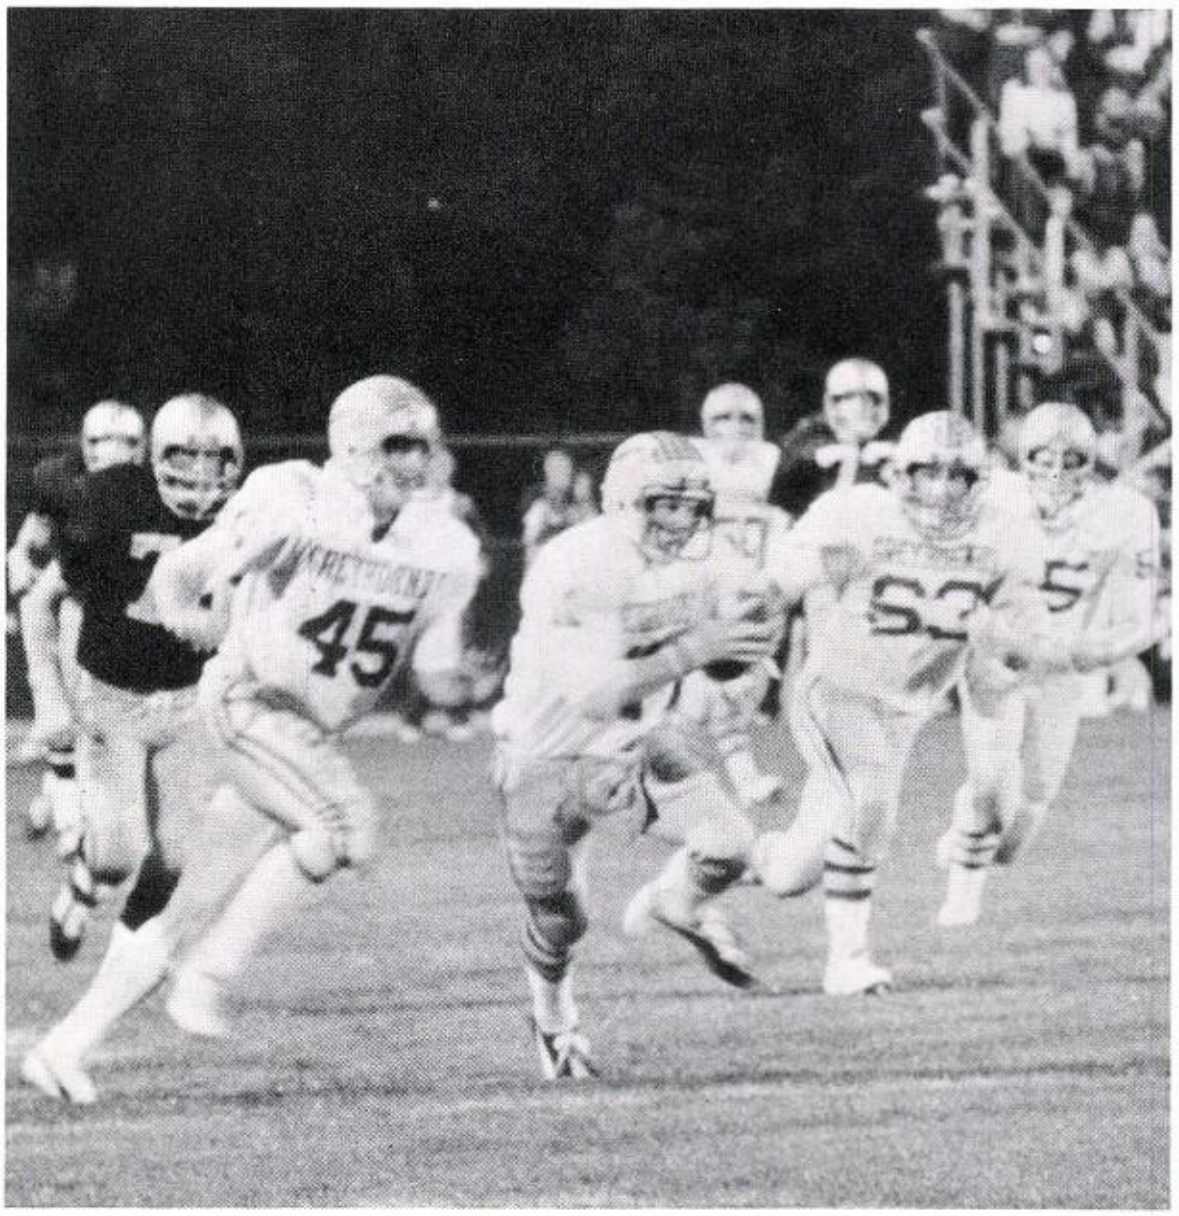
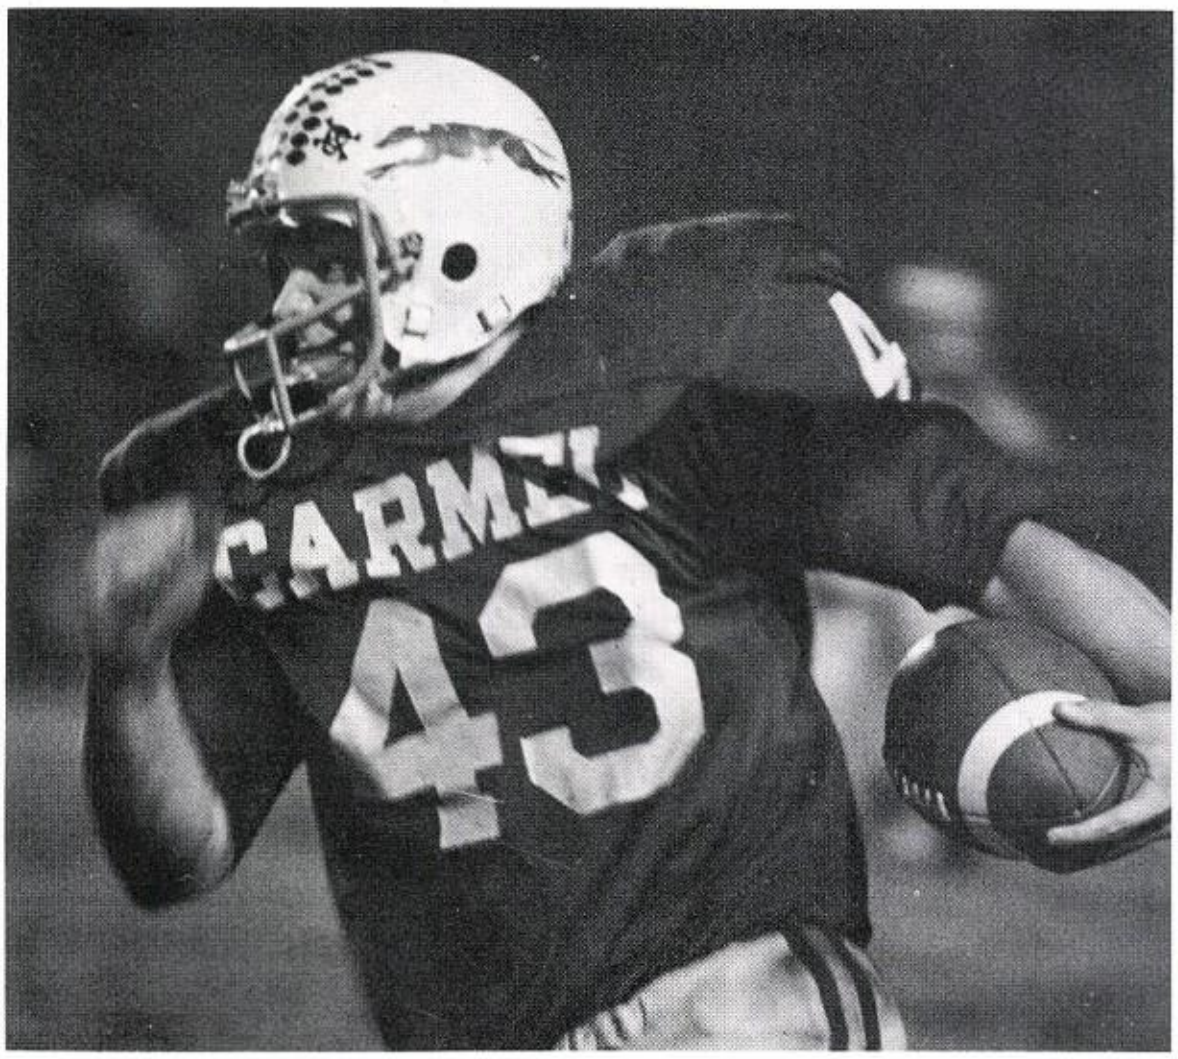
NUMBER ONE HOUNDS WIN AAA CROWN NOV. 18, 1978





Going into the 1978 gridiron season, no one was really sure how good the football team would be. With their opening season victory against North Central, however, they made it clear that it was going to be a sweet year. Carmel rolled up ten consecutive victories during the season.

Then came the playoffs. Everybody was excited, but a little hesitant about getting overconfident. Last year's playoff loss to Ben Davis was still a vivid memory. In the first playoff game, the Hounds found themselves behind for the first time this year. Chatard scored a touchdown early in the first quarter. The Hounds fought back and breezed to a victory. In Regionals, they won a 49-44 victory over Columbus East. Then came the State Finals. The whole town was fired up as over 5000 Carmel fans piled into the North Central stadium to see the Hounds come away with a 35-18 victory over FT. Wayne Dwenger.

1978 SECTIONAL CHAMPS

The tennis team, led by a strong Senior Class, won its second straight Sectional title under Coach Lonzo's watchful eye. Both Coach Lonzo and Assistant Coach Bardos caught a lot of static this fall about being ranked only second in the state, while the football and cross country teams were Number One. The team breezed through Sectionals with 3 consecutive 5-0 victories.

In Regionals, Carmel lost to Number-One-ranked (and eventual State Champions) North Central. The Greyhounds ended their 1978 season with an excellent 14-4 record. Mark Pittman, who set a record for the most high school career victories, was voted M.V.P. for the netmen. Other fine performances were turned in by Senior Co-Captains Rob Lundegard and Craig Nelson.

HARRIERS RUN TO

This year's Harriers did what only one other school in the state has done, and that was to win more than two consecutive State Cross Country Championships. On a beautiful October Saturday, the Number-One-ranked Carmel Greyhounds not only won their third title in a row but did it in devastating fashion by outdistancing second place Norwell by a 61-122 score.

The Hounds were led in the meet by All-State runner, Rod Zochowski, who, for the second time, placed fifth in the state. The undefeated Greyhounds also won the Pike, Ben Davis and Carmel Invitationals, the Olympic Conference Meet, the Hamilton County Meet, and the prestigious Illiana Classic, which combined the best teams in Indiana and Illinois.

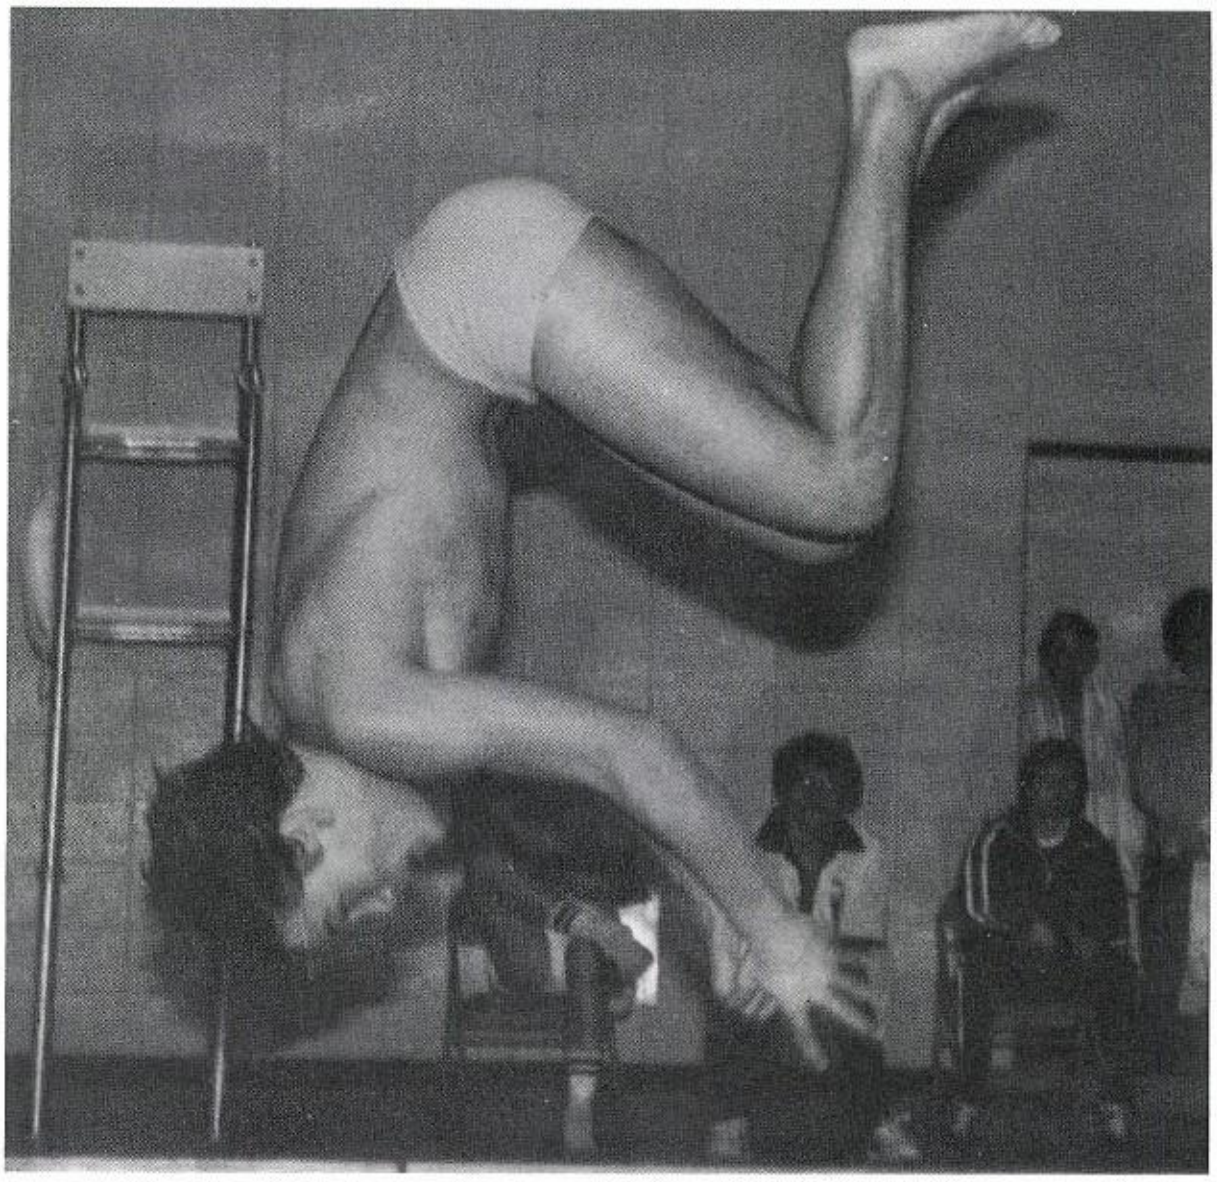
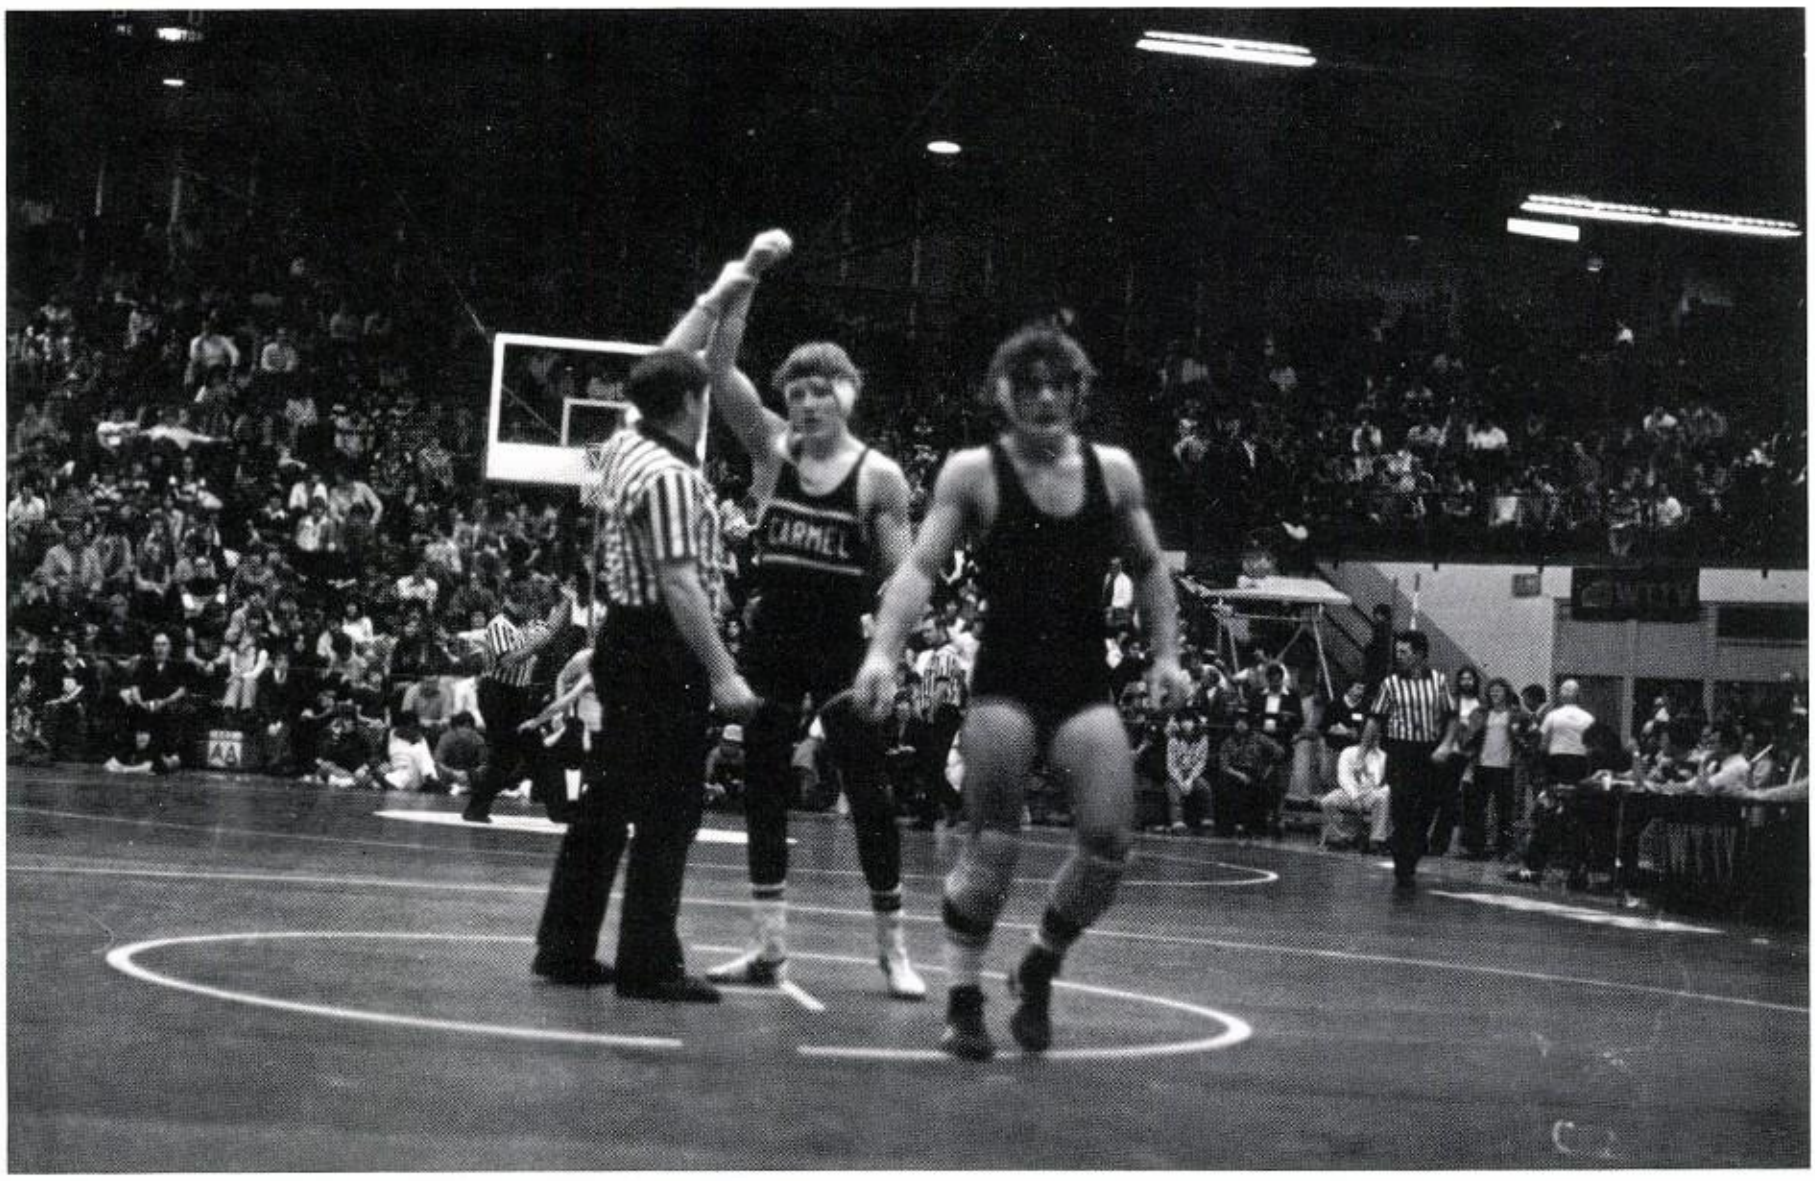
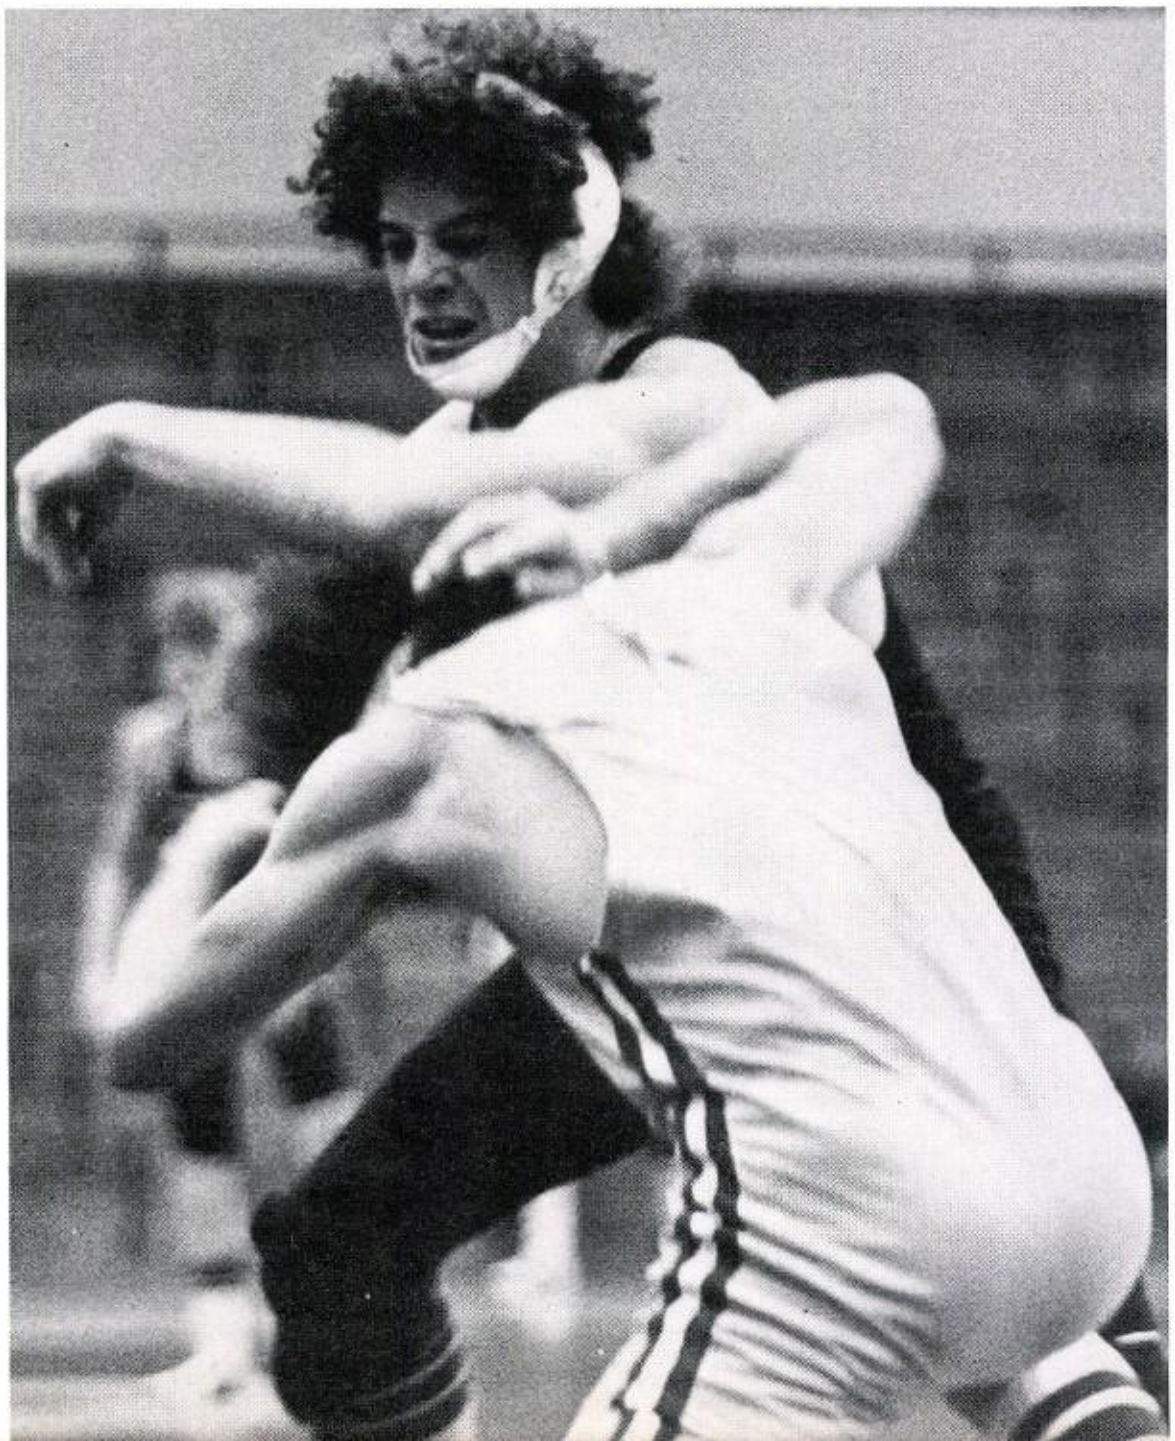
TANKERS SPLASH TO STATE

The Carmel Tankers ended their successful 8-3 season by sending two individuals and one relay team to the State Championship. Dave Weiss in the 100 backstroke, Jamie Howe in the 100 fly, and the 200 medley relay team (consisting of Dave Weiss, Jamie Howe, Eric Jones, and Chris Snyder) all qualified for the State Meet. This year's squad showed a great deal of team effort by setting a marathon swim record early in the year when they swam for three straight days. Next year's team looks very promising for another superb season.







Carmel finished the '78-'79 season with a perfect 11-0 dual meet record. The Hounds were led through the season by Senior Tri-Captains: Stan Baskett, Mike Anderson, and Scott Cann. In the State Tournament, Carmel received a First Place finish in the Sectionals and Regionals, a Third Place in Semi-State, and advanced three grapplers to the State Championship. In the State Finals, Carmel crowned it's fourth Individual Champion in four years. Stan Baskett took top honors in the 126 pound weight class, finishing the season with a 29-0 record. Mike Anderson took Third in the State while Jim Austin took a Fourth in the State Meet.

Coach Sutton explained the success of this year's team by saying, "They found and conquered themselves both in and out of practice. They also learned that there is a special magic created with teamwork and when people genuinely care about one another."

The 1978-1979 Greyhound Basketball team was led by a fine group of Seniors: Kerry Cook, Ruben Padro, Rick Sharp, Steve Shepherd, and Super-Sub Brad Greene. Rated no less than second during regular season play, the Hounds performed almost flawlessly to compile an 18-2 record.

In the finals of the Hall of Fame Classic at Butler, Carmel was defeated, by one, by Number-One-ranked South Bend Adams. Breezing through the Sectional, cutting the net, and traveling to the Wigwam, the Hounds were also picked as the favorite to sweep the Regional. After playing a physically exhausting afternoon game against Kokomo, Carmel was destined to meet rival Anderson in the finals that evening. The ball bounced Anderson's way as they squeaked by the Hounds 58-56 in a last second desperation shot, moving the Indians one more rung up the State Championship ladder, and crushing hopeful Carmel fans.

1. The Greyhounds burst on to the floor at the Anderson Regional.
2. With Coach Angle's guidance, the Hounds took the first game of the Regional against Kokomo.
3. Ruben Padro goes up for a lay-up to assist in the defeat of Muncie South.
4. 6'6" center Brad Greene reaches high for the rebound.

OLYMPIC TITLE PICKED OFF

The Greyhounds, returning everyone from last year's baseball team, had a tremendous season. The two goals of the year were to reverse the disappointing record of last year and to win the Olympic Conference title. The Hounds turned around their 6-16 record of last year to a superb record of 18-10. From last year's last place in the Olympic Conference, the batmen finished first, ending with the best record ever to win the Conference: 9-1. One of the high points was when the Hounds beat Number-5-ranked and Olympic-Conference opponent Kokomo Haworth 11-4. Ted Hutchison was named Most Valuable Player of the team. He set a new school record of batting 410 during the season. Dave Hearn set four school records. Overall, the Hounds set or tied nineteen school records. Unfortunately, the season came to and early end as the Hounds had a disappointing loss to Noblesville (10-5) in Sectional play.

TEAM WINS

The track team went through the regular dual-meet season undefeated. For the first time, the Hounds also won their own Carmel Invitational. The highlight of the season, however, was winning the 24-team Sectional at Pendleton Heights. The trackers went on to place 5th out of 60 teams in the Regionals and sent four men to the State Meet: Tom Kirby, Gary Bullard, Bill Shuey, and Kevin Eagle.

GOLFERS WIN REGIONAL

"The high point of the season was winning," said Coach Huffer as he discussed the golfers very successful season. Led by Ken Banks (M.V.P.), they repeated as County Champs and were also crowned Conference Champs. The golf team also won two prestigious invitational meets, the Lafayette and Old Oakland. The team has worked hard to gain satisfaction and prestige. They have earned state-wide recognition and respect as the team to beat for any championship. The varsity team finished with a record of 16-5. The reserve team also ended the season with a fine record (8-1).

"It was the third straight year for nine victories," Coach Quillin remarked proudly about his girls golf team. In Sectionals, Carmel placed fifth with a score of 386 for eighteen holes. The team ended the season with a record of 9-2. The two outstanding players this season were Julie Kahn and Kristi Harner. Two Juniors and two Sophomores will return next year. All gained valuable experience this season that should prove to be very helpful to the team next fall.

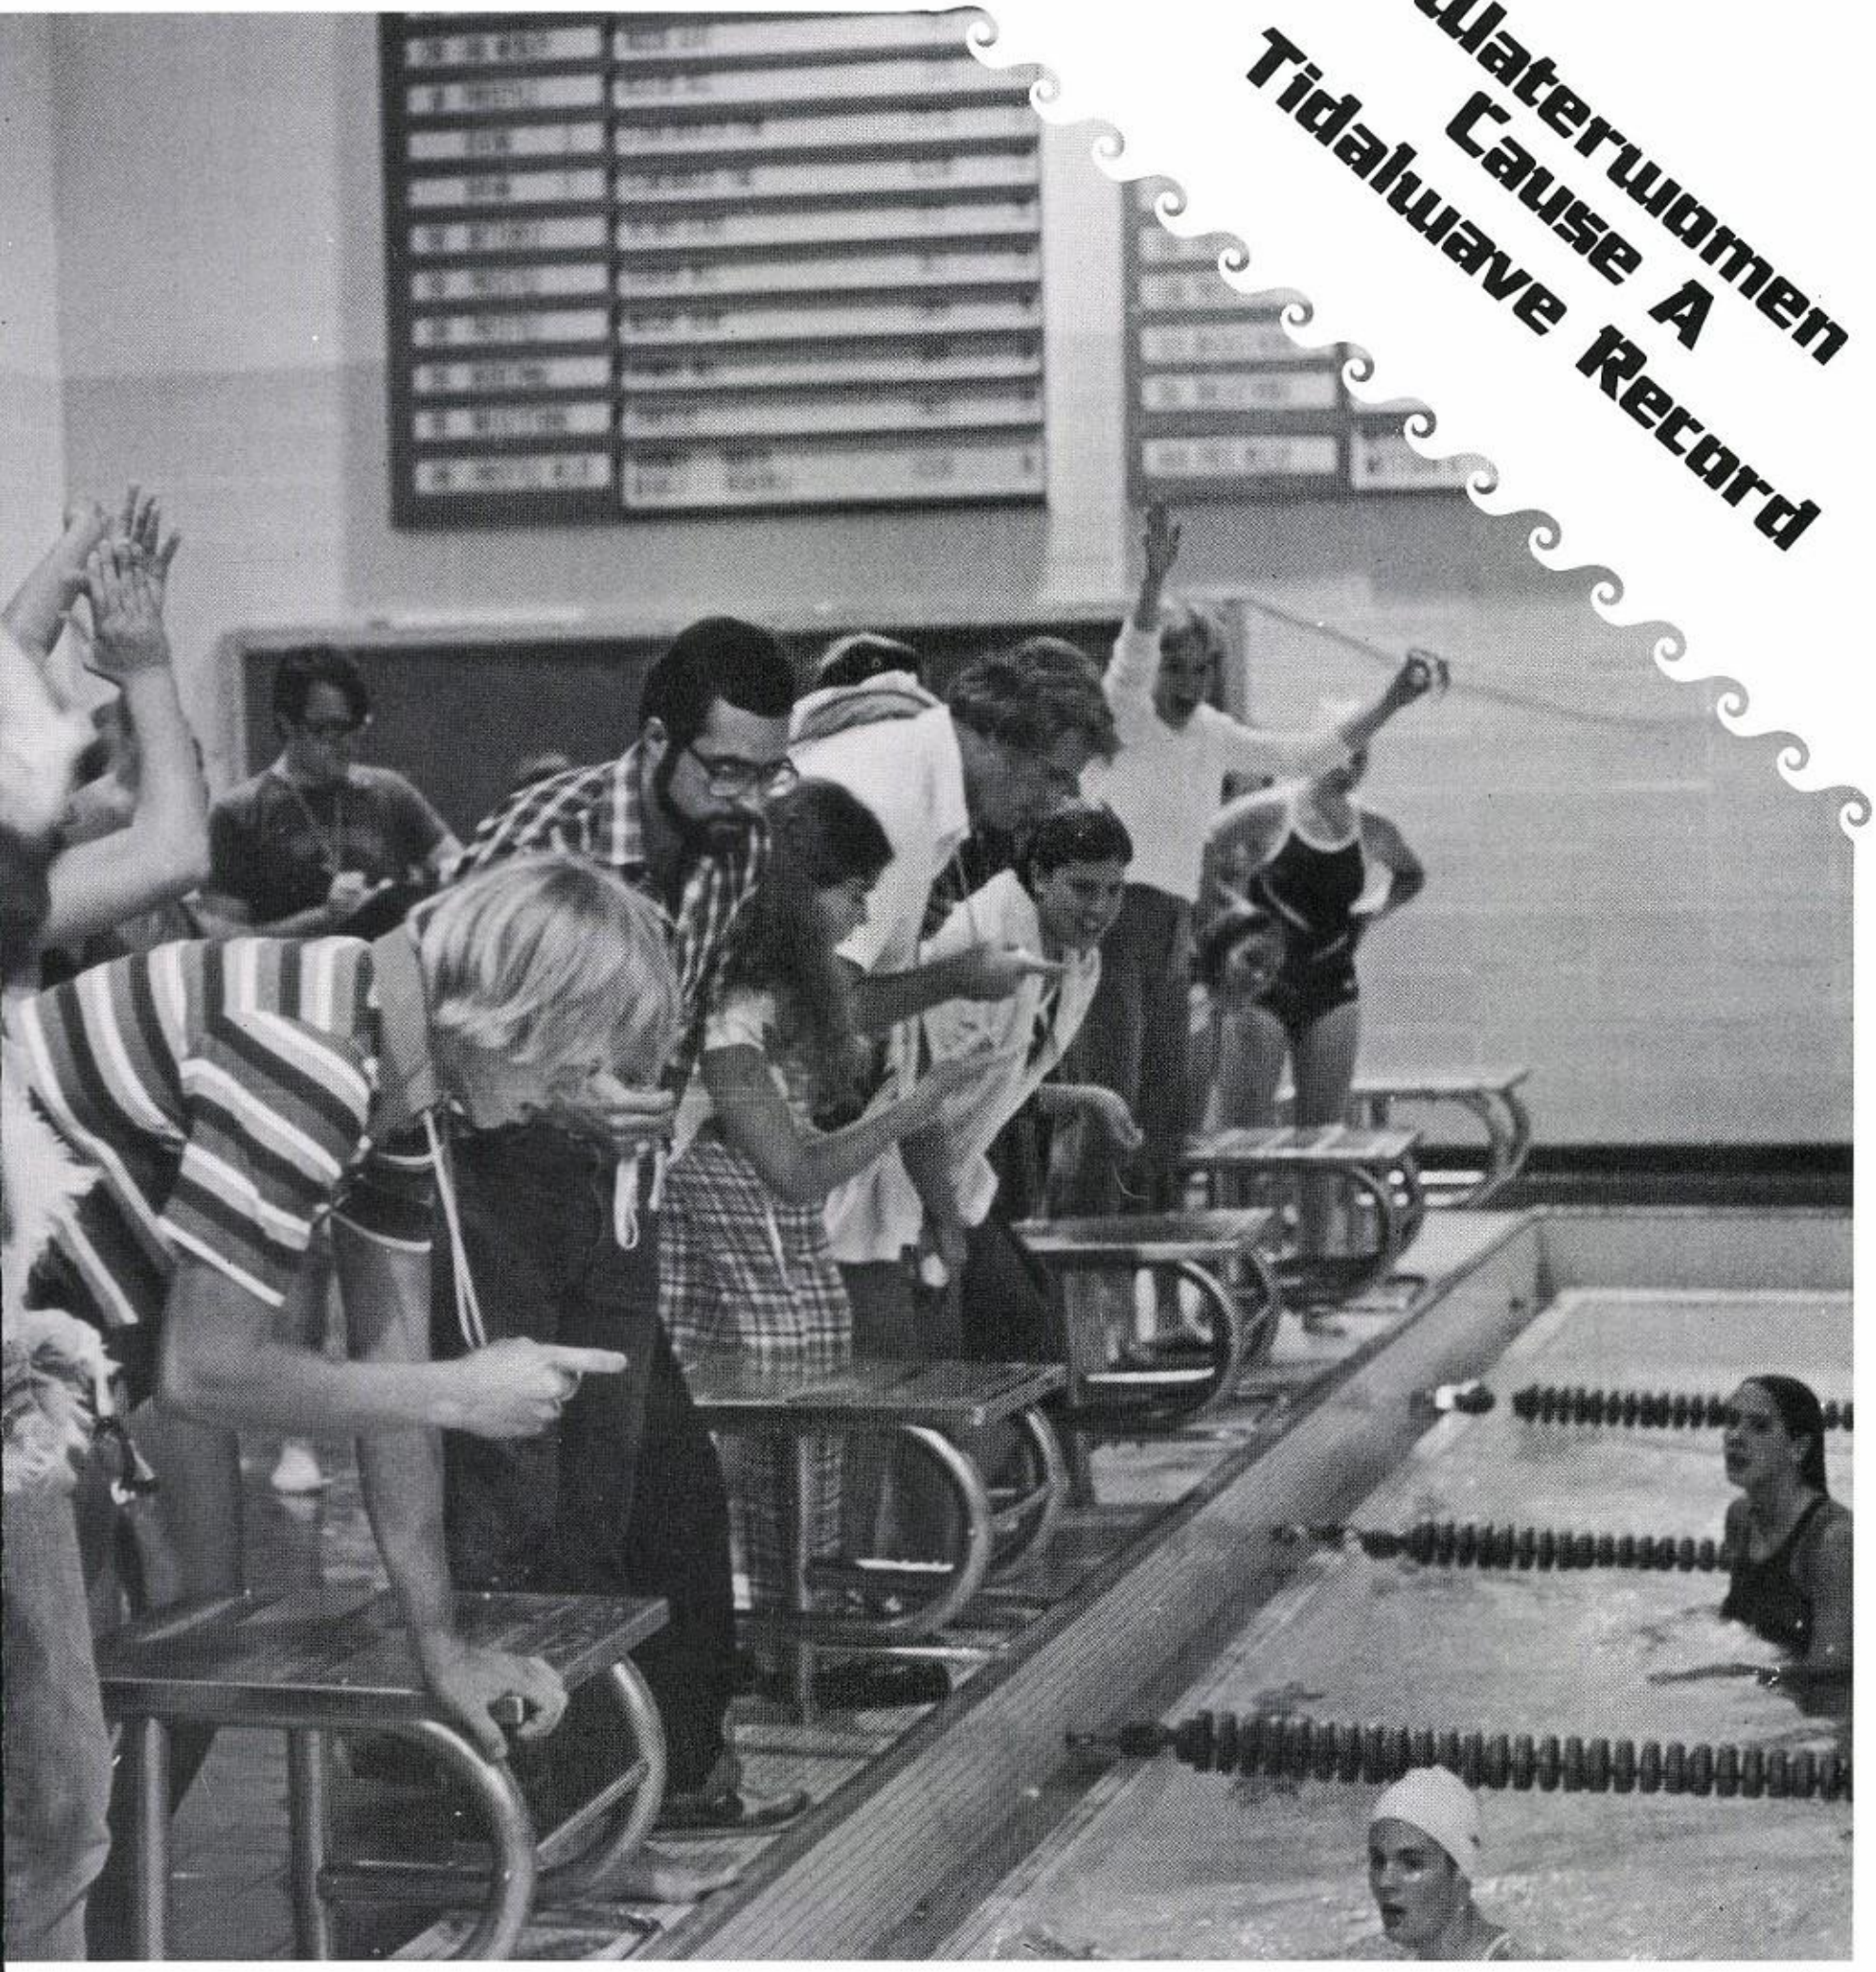
Waterwomen Cause A Tidalwave Record



The girls swim team ended with a splashing record of 10-3. They sent eight girls to the State Swim Meet, which was the best representation that Carmel has ever had. Merry Kennedy broke five school records and was part of the 400 free relay squad that also broke a school record with a time of 3:56:1. Other outstanding members this season were Jenny Aucott, Laurie Cavanaugh, Mary Titsworth, Suzy Kettlecamp, Nancy Nolan, Amy Kool, and Colleen Metzgar. The Waterwomen also came home proudly with a second place in Sectionals.

4. Carmel comes in second in Sectionals.

BUMP - SET - SPIKE

"Winning Sectionals for the sixth season in a row was definitely our high point," stated Miss Pearson, Volleyball Coach. The girls defeated Zionsville in overtime during Sectionals. This was quite exciting because they had beaten Carmel during the regular season. The girls, unfortunately, had a one-week losing streak, which began after being defeated by Ben Davis. They came back to win Sectionals but were defeated in the Regionals in a close match against New Castle. The team felt that they could have defeated New Castle, if they had played up to their full potential. The season ended with a record of 12-8.

1. VOLLEYBALL TEAM—Row 1: Kathy Puller, Amy Ricketts, Rhonda Shooltz, Jean Holmes, Tony Yeager, Lynette Ranck. GIRLS

The girls basketball team had an intense rebuilding program to replace the 1978 graduates—especially Dawn Roberts and Carol Lake. This took great time and effort. The girls participated in an invitational tournament at Lafayette Jefferson High School and have been invited to return during the 1979-1980 season. Kristi Harner was the outstanding player of the varsity team.

1. An opponent closes in on Michelle Martyn.
2. Varsity player Dorothy Fiddler makes a successful overhead pass.
3. Kristi Harner takes a shot.

With no rain-outs, the high point of the girls tennis team—besides their record of 12-4—was winning third place in the Warren Central Sectionals. Coach Bonnie Pearson said it was an outstanding team—especially attitude-wise. Deanna Witsken, the outstanding player of the season, played #1 Varsity singles in almost every match. She also won third in the Sectional competition. Laurie Shonfield and Kim Wallace played #1 Varsity doubles and also played in the Sectionals. The team gained skill, determination, perseverance, and dedication. At the Girls Spring Sports Banquet, Kim Wallace was voted the Most Valuable Player.

1. Witsken laughs it up during practice.
2. With a backhand volley, Wallace aces her opponent.
3. Shonfield watches to be sure her shot goes over.
4. Pearson hopes she is psyching out her opponent.
5. Coach Pearson smiles as the match goes her way.

BUSSA WINS STATE

With the help of Diane Bussa, Carmel had an outstanding record this year of ten wins and one loss. Making a great contribution to the team, Diane broke two school records: The 880 Yard Run with a time of 2:18.9 (old record 2:19.5), and the Mile Run with a time of 4:56.1 (old record 4:58.2). Two other records were broken: Juanne Koon, Susie Kinney, Jane Freeland, and Regina Gibson ran the 880 Yard Relay in 1:46.3 (old record 1:48.5). In the Long Jump, Heidi Hoyles jumped 16'3½" (old school record 16'½"). When asked what the team had gained, Coach Cougill replied, "They improved in all events with the best times occurring when they were needed most. They showed great team effort in the sectional meet." The team placed 6th. in the North Central Relays.

GYMNASTS TUMBLE TO REGIONALS

"Winning Sectionals was the highlight of our season," Coach Dryden stated of her girls Gymnastic team. "The girls worked extremely hard all year, and it was nice for them to be rewarded for their consistent efforts."

Gay Norton was the most consistent scorer and the top finisher throughout the year in competition. Gay finished First in the All-Around in the Carmel Gymnastic Sectional. Her attitude at practice and at the meets was an outstanding example for the Sophomores and Juniors on the team.

Because the team was so young, the experience and confidence they gained during the 1979 season will be valuable to them in the future. Each girl improved dramatically. After a successful season, Coach Dryden and her strong Underclass team are looking forward to another fine season.

1. Row 1: Karen Rice, Gay Norton, Judy Coyne, Karen Fitzgerald, Tina Bazley, Amy Hoyles, Michelle Williamson. Row 2: Coach Dryden, Kay Bull, Karen Schaeffer, Karen Klingman, Susie Walker.
2. Gay Norton reaches out for perfection on the balance beam.
3. Karen Fitzgerald performs a handspring on the vault.
4. Karen Rice gracefully dances and tumbles through her floor exercise routine.
5. Gay Norton demonstrates her uncontested ability on the uneven bars during a meet.

ADMINISTRATION

CHS is proud of Principal Dale E. Graham. Dedicated to his profession, he not only serves Carmel High School but also the State of Indiana. At the National Convention of Secondary School Principals, held in Houston, Texas, in February, Mr. Graham was elected to the Board of Directors of the National Association of Secondary School Principals. Although he is a big man, professionally, he finds time for even the little things at Carmel High School.

What became of the old-fashioned butcher?

Remember him? He knew how to trim a steak so it had just enough fat for great flavor . . . how to whop a pork special to make it crisp and tender . . . how to cut up a chicken with all the finesse of a brain surgeon . . . what happened to that real professional?

He's here at Joe O'Malia's!

. . . he and others like him. Because we believe you like it best when you're waited on by a real meat-specialist you can have confidence in. We don't think you want to buy meat that's been pre-packaged (you don't know when). You like to have a say in the thickness of your steak . . . in the amount of marbling in your roast . . . you don't want to buy a pig in a poke!

That's why, at O'Malia's we have old-pros behind our meat counters – and some new-pros, too . . . all with the conviction that your meat is too important to take a chance with. You want meat that will do the most for that new recipe . . . and that's the only kind you'll find here!

Come find, as others have, that . . .

YOU CAN BE SURE WHEN YOU SHOP AT

QUALITY STEREO AT LOWER PRICES

RELAX! YOU HAVE THE BEST PRICES IN TOWN FROM THE QUALITY STEREO STORE!

You always get more quality when you buy your stereo from the sound professionals in Keystone Square Shopping Center. You never pay more for it either. That (paying the lowest price available) is one of the many Soundpro guarantees.

Find out for yourself what many of your friends have been very surprised to learn that it actually costs less to buy quality stereo (brands like Pioneer, Yamaha, VVC, Sanyo, ESS,) from Soundpro in central Indiana.

Yes, the everyday prices at Soundpro are actually lower than the "Super-Duper, This-Week-Only-Spectacular-Never-Again (until next week) "SALE PRICES" offered every week by the big advertisers. After all, someone has to pay for all that advertising.

Soundpro is a little advertiser that is small enough to personally care about each and everyone of its customers. Buy your system from a pro.

You'll be glad you did!

As we come to the DEAD END of another school year, most of us find ourselves looking through our REAR VIEW MIRRORS reflecting over the past year, hoping to find some significance that it might hold in our lives. The HIGHWAY of life goes on for MILES and MILES at a quick SPEED. We need to STOP, LOOK, and LISTEN before CROSSING one busy INTERSECTION and going on to the next.

As the members of the Senior Class sit before families and friends on the evening of their Graduation most find their thoughts quite scrambled. Some may find themselves yearning to make a U-TURN off the HIGHWAY to college to return to the places and people they have grown comfortable with. On the other side of the STREET the Sophomores and Juniors exceed the SPEED LIMIT, RACING through two years of high school, wanting to make a DETOUR on to college life. As their Senior year finally ROLLS around and they've begun the JOURNEY down the STRAIGHT-A-WAY to Graduation, they'll realize the true meaning of THE CARMEL CRAZE!

Special thanks to Mr. Larry Glaze and Ms. Pat Huber from Herff Jones/Pischel; Mr. Ed Sims and Mr. Fred Schaefer and the Staff of Prestige Photography; and Jim Mullin (for his photography).
